Matthew 26:1-30

Matthew 26:1-30

I. Extravagant Worship

II. Remembering Passover

III. The Lord's Supper (Communion)

John 12:2

So they gave a dinner for him there. Martha served, and Lazarus was one of those reclining with him at table.

Mark 16:14

Later Jesus appeared to the Eleven as they were eating;

Luke 24:30

When he was at table with them, he took the bread and blessed and broke it and gave it to them. And their eyes were opened, and they recognized him.

2 Samuel 24:24

But the king said to Araunah, “No, but I will buy it from you for a price. I will not offer burnt offerings to the LORD my God that cost me nothing.”

Exodus 12:13

The blood shall be a sign for you, on the houses where you are. And when I see the blood, I will pass over you, and no plague will befall you to destroy you, when I strike the land of Egypt.

Exodus 12:14

This day shall be for you a memorial day, and you shall keep it as a feast to the LORD; throughout your generations, as a statute forever, you shall keep it as a feast.

Exodus 12:26-27

And when your children say to you, ‘What do you mean by this service?’ you shall say, ‘It is the sacrifice of the LORD’s Passover, for he passed over the houses of the people of Israel in Egypt, when he struck the Egyptians but spared our houses.’

1 Corinthians 10:12-13

Therefore let anyone who thinks that he stands take heed lest he fall. No temptation has overtaken you that is not common to man. God is faithful, and he will not let you be tempted beyond your ability, but with the temptation he will also provide the way of escape, that you may be able to endure it.

Hebrews 9:22

”...without the shedding of blood there is no forgiveness of sins.”

An artistic illustration of Jesus and his twelve apostles gathered around a table for the Last Supper. Jesus, with long brown hair and a beard, wearing a white tunic with a red sash, is seated in the center, gesturing with his hands as he speaks. The apostles, dressed in various colored robes and head coverings, are listening intently. The scene is set in a simple room with a plain background. The text "Luke 22:19" is overlaid on the left side of the image.

Luke 22:19

“...do this in remembrance of me”

1 Corinthians 11:28-29

Let a person examine himself, then, and so eat of the bread and drink of the cup. For anyone who eats and drinks without discerning the body eats and drinks judgment on himself. That is why many of you are weak and ill, and some have died.

1 John 1:9

If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

Ephesians 2:8-9

For by grace you have been saved through faith. And this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God.
